SELF-SUSTAINING HOSPITAL

ent of Malulani hospital, Walluku, makes a grand showing financially for that institution. When the appropria-August, the Executive Council ordered that the hospital, through a board of trustees, be allowed to use current receipts for payment of running expenses. This arrangement went into effect in Sentenber. ses. This arranger fect in September.

The report of the hospital for the month of May shows a balance to the good of $495.80, making the accountlated cash on hand $2386.45.

There were 60 patients in Malulani there were to patients in maintain hospital the month of May. Of these nine were non-paying, 27 ward paying, two private paying and 22 plantation cases. The admissions and discharges were 28 each, and the deaths five.

By nationality there were 6 Hawa-lians, 3 Europeans, 3 Chinese, 45 Japanese and 3 others, making the total of 60 cases treated in May. In unfavorable contrast with the Wailuku institution is the Government hospital at Hilo, Hawail, which re-peatedly calls on the Board of Health to pay deficiency bills. . . .
